Hawaiian Music Performance/Talk: Jason Poole, Sun. Dec. 4th; 2pm

Jason Poole will present Hawaiian music from Molokai and will talk about the Story of Sons of Hālawa documentary. Growing up in the suburbs of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Jason never expected to find himself traveling around the country as a Hawaiian musician and cultural teacher. His life took a crazy turn following a (hip-shattering) accident; a path that led him to the island of Molokai where he was adopted into a well-respected Hawaiian family and became a master teacher of their culture, language and songs. A documentary, Sons of Hālawa, was made about the family and their quest to preserve this legacy. As one of the "Sons," his journey and his music are woven into the film. In this talk & performance, Jason will share his experiences writing original music for the soundtrack of the film, and what it is like to record an album on a remote island. And he will share traditional Hawaiian songs from Molokai and the neighbor islands, as well.

Held in a private residence on the Upper West Side of New York City near West 98th Street & Broadway. Seating limited. Reservations required. For reservations and location, please e-mail Evy Mayer at president@folkmusicny.org or 718-549-1344 (after 11 AM.) Suggested contribution $15. FMSNY members $12.

Piedmont Bluz: Sunday, Decmber 4th; 4-6pm

The Piedmont Bluz acoustic duo is dedicated to the preservation of Country Blues and the Piedmont style. Their mission is to help keep this rural, east coast tradition alive by educating audiences about this unique aspect of African American culture through musical entertainment. The husband and wife duo are much loved wherever they go and feel that "there are stories to tell, people to remember, and things that must be said" so, in addition to tickling your ears with delightful music, they weave a bit of history into the presentation of each song.

Co-sponsored with and at the Good Coffeehouse at the Old Stone House, 336 Third Street, in J.J. Byrne Park, between 4th and 5th Avenues, Brooklyn, 718-768-3195; 4-6pm; $10 contribution. Info: fbanjo(at)aol.com; facebook page: http://on.fb.me/1UxthNr.

FMSNY's Birthday Jam & Sing: Friday, December 9th; 7-10 pm

Come help us celebrate our 51st year with a potluck jam and sing. Bonnie Milner (of the Johnson Girls) will lead the song circle; Evy Mayer (one president you can trust) will facilitate the jam. Instruments and voices are welcome at both, but the sing will be primarily vocal, and the jam a combination of vocal and instrumental. People tend to drift from one to the other as the spirit moves them. Bring a potluck dish to share (please check with Evy, president[at]folkmusicny.org or 718-549 1344 after 11 am, so we don't drown in onion dip). And it's FREE. At OSA Hall, 220 East 23rd St, Suite 707 (between 2nd and 3rd Ave's) Information: 646-628-4604.

Shanty Sing: Sunday, December 18th; 2-5pm

We are co-sponsoring the Shanty Sing on the 3rd Sunday of every month. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions at the Noble Maritime Collection (to give the official title) are from 2 to 5 pm at the Noble Gallery, Building D, Snug Harbor Cultural Center, 1000 Richmond Terrace, Staten Island, NY. Refreshments are available, including beer and wine for sale.

Snug Harbor is accessible by the S40 bus from the Staten Island Ferry Terminal and by car. This job entitles you to a free weekend.

In an effort to make our weekends available to more members there are now several scholarship funds set up:

George Parker Scholarship - provides scholarships for each weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George's parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides scholarships for each weekend each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy's father Charles Mayer.

You will have to pick and choose on Dec 4th. We try to avoid conflicts, but this time there are 3 exciting programs on the same day—the Hawaiian Music Performance/ Talk, the Maritime and Folk Song Session and the Piedmont Bluz. Remember to come to FMSNY's Birthday Jam and Sing. It was such a success last year that we decided to do it again this year.

Our winter weekend is coming up and the scholarship applications are due January 6th. Don't be shy about applying. Remember that you can apply for a full scholarship or for a partial one if you can afford something. See the flier on pages 21-22.

VOTING: Ballots for the Board of Directors will be arriving for members in the mail. Don't forget to VOTE!!!!

Sad news for those of us who knew Ilene Greenstone. She passed away in November. Before she and Ted moved to Pittsburgh, she came often to FMSNY events. Ted continues to come to our weekends. She was, as Ted says in his memorial for her in this newsletter, a wonderful woman.

Thank you to our newsletter mailing volunteers—Marilyn Suffet, Betsy Mayer, Clarice Kjerulff, Lyn Cole, Eileen Pentel and Don Wade. Always room for more to help with the mailing. Come on and join us this month on Thursday, December 29th!

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Lenore Greenberg and Ira Lyons took a memorable three-week trip to Africa in May 2016. They visited Botswana, Zambia, Zimbabwe and South Africa. During this time, they went on four safaris, each originating in a different camp. They saw stalking lions as well as lots of elephants, birds, buffalo and many more varieties of wildlife. "It was a great trip," says an enthusiastic Lenore, "with amazing sights."

Eileen Pentel wants to share a very exciting conference coming up. This is an important conference to encourage girls to continue in the science, technology, engineering and math. Hope you can help out:

> Volunteer Workshop leaders needed for STEM conference for girls coming to The Renaissance Charter School (TRCS) on May 6, 2017.
> This conference is sponsored by Queens STEM Career Women, Inc. and TRCS. We are seeking professional women (current or retired) or graduate students with careers in the sciences, medicine, computer, health or architecture. At our conference the workshop leader would conduct a one-hour workshop with sixth and seventh grade girls. The workshop should be a fun, hands-on activity related to the leader's field of expertise. (See link below for examples). If interested, please email queensstemgirls@gmail.com. Link to workshop examples. http://westchester-ny.aauw.net/activities/explore-your-opportunities/student-workshops/

Joanne Davis continues to sing, play instruments and write songs in Santa Fe, where she currently lives. She has met another woman musician who loves to harmonize. They are considering doing some gigs as a duo called "Two Infamous Women." "That should bring in customers!" Joanne loves living in Santa Fe, which she describes as wonderful. "The sky is endless and so beautiful, but you can't make old friends in new places!" We miss you too, Joanne!"

Ilene Greenstone

Long time member, Ted Greenstone let us know that his wife, Ilene Greenstone passed away November 11th.

Ilene moved to New York in the fall of 1980 from Pittsburgh, where she had gone to High School with Alice Backer. She was an empathetic and caring person who trained Head Start teachers, administered early childhood development programs, and directed the early childhood pre-school program at the Pittsburgh Pennsylvania JCC. After we married in July of '81, we attended FMSNY weekends together at Camp Freedman, and included our children as attendees starting with Benjamin when he was only months old, and added Anna to the mix when she came along 16 months later. Our attendance at weekends decreased when my work and living location changed to Pittsburgh, and my vacation schedule precluded seven hour drives in each direction to justify only 36 hours at Camp Freedman. I last brought Ilene to a weekend in Spring or Fall (I think Fall) of '04. Those were the days when she still remembered the words and harmonies to some Ian & Sylvia duets that we performed at Camper Concerts, but those days now only exist in my memories.

Ilene had been afflicted by FTD (frontal temporal dementia) for many years. We noticed unusual behavior developing starting around 2002-2003, first ascribing it to a personality quirk, and then noticing its increasing severity. We had a preliminary evaluation of her by a neurologist in 2006, and a final determination by the same practitioner in 2007. Her condition gradually deteriorated over the years, with vocabulary fading from searches for words, to ending with her being non-verbal. Her ability to handle daily living tasks slowly faded away, and left her dependent on in-home care givers while I was at work, finally requiring admission to a live-in care facility when I and the home care folks were unable to care for her increasing needs. In February of 2014 she was admitted to a local nursing home, where the professional staff kept her as well as one can under such circumstances. On 10/31 of this year, we were notified that Ilene had had an intestinal bleed of unknown cause on Sunday night (10/30), also including aspirated stomach contents from refluxed substances. She had lost her swallowing reflex, and we initiated hospice measures at her care facility. The focus was on keeping her comfortable, and morphine was administered by swabbing the inner surfaces of her mouth. She lost her battle with this disease on Tuesday afternoon, 11/8. Her funeral was scheduled for 11:00 AM on Thursday 11/10, in Pittsburgh.

I consider myself privileged and fortunate to have married and lived with such a wonderful woman.

Ted Greenstone

Donations in memory of Ilene can be directed to the Association for Frontal Temporal Degeneration. Their website is www.theaftd.org.

and New York Short Stories. As part of her acting class, she will be doing a monologue this month from Delia and Nora Ephron's "Love, Loss and What She Wore." She will also play Florence Foster Jenkins in a scene from "Souvenir" where she is required to sing "Beautiful Dreamer" off-key.

Best wishes to everyone for a joyful holiday season. If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman[at]msn.com.

What Else Does FMSNY Do??

As well as our own concerts, weekends, TradMaD Camp, workshops, sings, jams, and music parties, the society also helps support other events that feature traditional music:

Youth Traditional Song Weekend
In January, around 140 people get together in a camp in Massachusetts and sing, sing, sing. This is a youth-focused (though not youth-exclusive) weekend for singers and session leaders interested in traditional songs. www.youthtradsong.org/

Old Songs Festival
In late June at the Altamont Fairgrounds, Altamont, NY. A family-friendly gathering that has concerts and workshops, dances, and fun for all. festival.oldsongs.org/

Mystic Seaport Chantey Blast and Pub Sing and Sea Music Festival
The Chantey Blast happens in January on a Saturday, the festival in June. At the Chantey Blast, around 300 people gather to sing for an afternoon -- mainly chanteys but other maritime songs too. The festival is in the Seaport Museum grounds, and also features a symposium of papers on maritime and music subjects. The museum itself is worth a visit at any time: tall ships, workshops, and more. www.mysticseaport.org/
