

The Folk Music Society of N.Y., Inc./ N.Y. Pinewoods Folk Music Club presents

Michelle Choiniere

Franco-American Singer

Friday, Feb. 26, 2010; 7:30 PM

Michele Choiniere was born into a musical Franco-American family in northern Vermont, and from an early age performed traditional Franco-American music with her father Fabio, an accomplished harmonica player. In 1995, she began writing and composing her own songs and has performed throughout New England, Quebec and France. Writing and singing in both English and French, Michele powerfully expresses her cultural identity as a bilingual Franco-American from the New England borderlands. Her repertory and vocal style are as eclectic as they are evocative: jaunty French cabaret songs rub elbows with contemplative ballads and pop-tinged lyrical folk melodies.

Broadway Mall Community Center
96th St. and B'way, on the center island, NYC 10025

General admission is $15

FMSNY; CD*NY and Borderline Folk Music Club members, $12

Full-time students 22 and under, $6 .

Tickets can be purchased at the door or on line at: <http://choiniere.eventbrite.com>

Information www.folkmusicny.org or 718-672-6399

Next Program at the Broadway Mall Community Center:
English singer Brian Peters, Friday, April 30

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation, an affiliate of the Country Dance and Song Society of America. It is run by a volunteer Board of Directors, elected by the membership. It runs concerts, weekends, classes, singing parties, and get-togethers, all with an emphasis on traditional folk music of all flavors. Look at our website www.folkmusicny.org.