Brooklyn Bluegrass Maestro Orrin Star is a nationally recognized performer and teacher based in New York City's most populous borough. Winner of the 1976 National Flatpicking Championship -- the largest bluegrass guitar contest in North America -- Orrin plays guitar, banjo, and mandolin, and also sings. Orrin is also an accomplished storyteller and entertainer who worked as a stand-up comic for five years in the Boston area. He is the author of a popular guitar instruction book, Hot Licks for Bluegrass Guitar and writes a column for Flatpicking Guitar magazine. This concert is co-sponsored by Polytechnic University and the Sultans of String and will be recorded live. Orrin will appear as part of his trio, the Sultans of String, with renowned fiddler Bill Christopherson and singer/guitarist Russell Scholl. While bluegrass is their specialty, don't be surprised if the trio ventures into old-time, western swing, and other traditional genres of string band music.

By train: A, C, F (Jay St. - Borough Hall) and M, N, R (Lawrence Street) are closest. #2, 3, 4, 5 are five min. walk (Borough Hall). ## We Need Your Help!

The space at Brooklyn Poly, which we have been using for our Folk Off Broadway concerts, will no longer be available to us on any regular basis. We had the good luck for many years before that of being able to use the conference room at the League of Women Voters office at Broadway and 12th Street. Now we are coming to you, our members, for help.

Do you work or live somewhere where there is an inexpensive room that we can use for small concerts? (Manhattan location preferred.) We would need access on Friday or Saturday evenings, or alternately Sunday afternoons. In a pinch, we would even consider Thursday evenings. We would need seating for 15-45 people. Ideally, we would have 6-7 small concerts per year.

If you can help, call me at 1-718-549-1344 (after 11 AM,) or send an e-mail <ukelady1@prodigy.net>.

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Happy New Year everyone. Let's hope that 2004 will be a good year for all of us. Please add to that New Year's Resolutions list: "I will submit a news item to the Folk Process this year."

Just prior to his retirement from the U.S. Postal Service in August, 2003, MARCUS TIEMAN cleaned out his locker at the job. This was no ordinary endeavor, since things were piled, from the bottom to the top, in archeological layers. At the very bottom, he found a Pinewoods Newsletter from 1980. Is there a basic metaphysical truth here about the underlying power of music or does Marcus just have a lot of stuff? In any case, congratulations upon your retirement, Marcus!

Pottery by LINDA PRAEGER was displayed with the Greenwich House Pottery Group at the Second Annual Sale of Handmade Ceramic Tiles that was held on December 13th and 14th at the Children's Aid Society in Greenwich Village.

BERNICE SILVER recently celebrated her 90th birthday. Good wishes poured in from puppeteer and other former colleagues. Congratulations Bernice!

LUCY SIMPSON took her three-year-old granddaughter, MELISSA LANCET to the Thanksgiving Day parade where they had fun. Although Melissa's favorite thing is slides, she doesn't slide between notes. Grandma Lucy is delighted to note that she sings in tune.

JUDY POLISH is taking a course in American Literature at Hunter College and is also enjoying singing in the Hunter College Chorus.

Speaking of learning new things, BERTIE HELD is learning how to play the piano. Bertie is enjoying this new endeavor, but adds, "Evgemy Kisin has nothing to worry about yet." Well Bertie, you know the old joke about the tourist asking directions. How do you get to Carnegie Hall? The response, of course, is PRACTICE. You all knew that one, right?

NANCY KENESS and IRENE ANDERSON just got their third dog. This is not a minor addition to a Manhattan apartment! The new arrival is a long haired miniature dachshund named MOLLY. Molly joins another, already established miniature dachshund named TEDDY as well as SALLY, a Yorkshire terrier.

Another book by LENORE GREENBERG's son, STANLEY, has recently been published. It is entitled, Waterworks: Photos Of The New York Water System.

IRVING GLAZER is off to Florida this month where he will attend the Broward Folk Festival in Fort Lauderdale.

On a sad note, we learned just before press time that BEN MANDEL died on December 12th. Funeral services were held December 14th at the Parkside Funeral parlor in Queens. Ben, a founding member of the club, was a wonderful dulcimer player, a talented painter, and a good friend to many. He will be missed. The club extends sincere condolences to his family.

A gentle reminder: I'm thinking about re-running a Folk Process column from 1996 next month for Valentine's Day about couples who met through the club. It would be great to be able to add more information about couples who were not listed in that column. Would you please send me some information in time for next month's newsletter? (A list of couples that were included in the 1996 column is in last month's Folk Process column if you need to check.)

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Review: TAMBURITZANS

at the Fashion Institute of Technology, November 1, 2003

Wow!! How great to once again experience the annual visit of these fresh-faced, super-energetic and oh so talented scholarship students from Duquesne University. About three dozen strong, they captivated a cheering audience — singing, dancing, playing a huge range of familiar and exotic instruments, and dazzling the eye with an ever-changing panorama of wonderful costumes.

As usual, the pieces were from Central and Eastern Europe — Croatia, Serbia, Slovenia, Ukraine, Macedonia, Bulgaria, Slovakia, Greece, Poland, Romania, Hungary, Armenia, and Russia — and dealt with love and longing, legendary folk heroes, bringing in the harvest, and other human concerns. There was plenty of “light-hearted fun and frolic,” some wild dueling accordions (and later on some sensational dueling violins), a really exciting fun segment with twirling and juggling axes, a comic drunken fiddler, a marvelous accordion solo (a beautiful Russian tune, in a virtuoso performance that was also deeply touching), several ‘aerial’ dances, and a super-spectacular and riveting closing number. As previously stated — Wow!!

This show will be repeated all over the country, including Connecticut performances on Feb 21 and 22, 2004, and nearby Hackensack, NJ (March 20 and 21, 2004). And of course, a brand new show next year at F.I.T., Saturday November 6, 2004. Save the date.

The Tammies also do have recordings and videos, which I know you’ll enjoy. For info on those, and details on their performances, contact them: Duquesne Univ. Tamburitzans, 1801 Blvd of the Allies, Pittsburgh, PA 15219; 412-396-5185; tamburitzans@duq.edu; www.tamburitzans.duq.edu Go Tammies!!

Eileen Pentel

Happy New Year! We hope that your holidays were happy, and you are ready for a year of singing, playing and enjoying our concerts, weekends and many other activities. The year starts off with a Sea Music concert with NexTradition, Bruce Molsky's concert and fiddle workshop and Orrin Star & the Sultans of String. We also have many opportunities for you to join in the singing. There is the Brooklyn Folk Open Sing, the Queen's Sunnyside Song Circle, the Sacred Harp Sing and the Gospel & Sacred Harp Sing and the Chantey Sing.

Don't forget to register for the Winter Weekend in February. Remember, some people were left on the waiting list for our Fall weekend.

We hope you voted for our new Board of Directors. By the way, we noticed that on the board members' blurbs, we put the wrong year. But you knew what we meant. Congratulations to our new board. Many thanks to Mark Maniak, a hard working member of the board who was not able to continue in that capacity for this year. Thank you also to Harvey Binder who served as treasurer for the last several years and to Heather Wood, who is currently the treasurer. There are still some openings on the Board of Directors. If you are interested, please contact Joy Bennett.

This is also a good time to thank the many people who have worked hard on the newsletter. Special thanks go to Judy Polish who is our proofreader. I want to put in a disclaimer here—she catches all our errors—the ones that got away are the ones we weren't able to send to her because of our tight schedule. Our thanks go to Isabel Goldstein who organizes our newsletter mailings—even when she is not able to be there. Thank you to Lenore Greenberg who does our Folk Music Calendar and John Mazza who compiles our festival listings for the summer. Extra special thanks go to Don Wade, who does our layout and makes sure that everything fits in the newsletter in the right format and all our pages are filled.

Many thanks to the people who come to mail out the newsletter—"from our home to yours"! Thank you this month to: Joan Beth Brown, Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gottlieb, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Thursday, January 29th and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

Hot licks.Cool tunes. Big grins.

Old Time Country Music and More!

One of the most influential old time fiddlers of his generation, Bruce Molsky is also a remarkable guitarist, banjo player, and singer. Bruce's solo CD, Poor Man's Troubles, won a 2001 Indie for Best Traditional Folk Recording, and his new band, Fiddlers Four, was a 2003 Grammy nominee.
