November 7 -Jeff Warner & Bruce McIntyre.

Bruce has spent most of his singing life as a church and oratorio soloist, but seven years ago he wandered into a traditional music session at the Pressroom in Portsmouth, NH, experienced a mighty conversion to folk music, and hasn't looked back since. With guitar, drum, bones and voice, Bruce now spends a good part of each musical year accompanying Jeff Warner and singing the songs of the American tradition.

With warmth, humor and understated scholarship, Jeff Warner connects 21st century audiences with the music and everyday lives of 19th century people. He presents musical traditions from the Outer Banks of North Carolina to the Adirondacks and coastal New England. His songs from England and America, Irish-American concertina tunes and African-American banjo tunes have “the stamp of authority and real experience” in the words of one English reviewer. He has honed his craft in front of audiences across the country at festivals, museums, clubs and schools. His songs, rich in local history and a sense of place, bring, as one writer put it, “the latest news from the distant past.”

Welcome in October with the “Washboard Slim & the Blue Lights” concert, an exceptional jug band, and our many “sings”—Folk Open Sing, Sacred Harp and the Gospel/Sacred Harp sings, The Chantey Sing, the Riverdale Sing, and the Sunnyside Song Circle. Don't forget the up-coming Fall Weekend. Enjoy the great company, the fall foliage and the music. There's still room to register now!

Our next issue will be the November/December double issue. We have only had the summer issue as a double issue, but in order to control rising costs, we have decided to make the next issue a double one as well. This means that if you have anything for December, be sure to get it in to us by October 12th along with your November information.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the September Newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Peña, Mariann Perseo, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Wednesday November 3rd and help mail out the next newsletter? (See above).

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

In July, SUE TOBIASON spent an unforgettable vacation in Tallinn, Estonia where she participated in a song festival that is held there every five years. She traveled there with the Riverdale Choral Society, a group to which she belongs. They sang a dozen pieces in Estonian with over 20,000 other singers for a crowd of over 100,000 people. While in Tallinn, Sue also had the opportunity to attend a local folk festival. The group also toured Helsinki, Finland and St. Petersburg, Russia. An enthusiastic Sue writes, "It was an incredible two weeks."

Also in July, STU SHAPIRO went to the Incarnation Center in Connecticut with Elderhostel for a week of Gilbert and Sullivan where the focus was on "The Pirates of Penzance." Led by a Gilbert and Sullivan scholar, the group watched videos, sang, attended discussions and put on a show for invited local guests in which Stu sang two parodies from "Pirates." Stu even won a writing contest with his parody of the song which begins, "I am the very model of a modern major general."

JANICE QUINTER vacationed in Nova Scotia in July and discovered some activities that might interest members traveling there in the future. She enjoyed going to the Old Triangle Irish Alehouse in Halifax where, several nights a week, traditional and contemporary British, Scottish, Irish and Canadian folk music is performed. Visit the alehouse at 5136 Prince Street, www.oldtriangle.com. Janice also went to the Maritime Fiddle Festival in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia near Halifax. There are workshops, fiddle and step dance competitions, and jam sessions. Next year's dates are July 7-11. www3.ns.simpatico.ca/marfiddlefest.

Congratulations to SHEILA EWALL's niece, MARNI, who was accepted to law school at Ohio Northern University.

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Weekend Help Wanted

Full and Partial Scholarships are available in exchange for administrative work done on our folk music weekends (Spring, Fall, and Winter). These jobs are essential to the success of the weekend and are usually assigned far in advance so please think about the Winter weekend now! Contact the Club President, Joy Bennett, 1718-575-1906 if you are interested in any of the jobs below. (Jobs are filled at the Exec. Board meeting 2-4 months preceding each weekend.) Some jobs are done on all weekends and others are only on specific weekends--the jobs are marked Spring (S), Fall (F), and Winter (W).

Weekend Chair: A management job with responsibility for the performance of all of the other jobs. On the weekend is the club's contact with the manager of the facility we are using. (half scholarship) (S,F,W)

Transportation: Tries to find rides to and from camp for all who need them. Gets and gives out info. on public transportation if needed. (full scholarship) (S,F,W)

Letter to the Editor

Hello, you singers. Do thank Isabel Goldstein for spearheading the Club's Sacred Harp/gospel Sunday afternoon sings for lo, these many years. If you haven't come to one, give it a try. You get a chance to pick a favorite piece for the group to sing (or just sit back and join in), and the available selections include many real gems — music that's rousing and powerful, sometimes funny, always great harmonies. See you there soon, I hope.

—Sol weber

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

Special Offer for Club Members

Camsco Music (Dick Greenhaus):

If any members buy recordings from Camsco Music via the internet or the toll-free line, 800-548-FOLK, and identify themselves as Pinewoods Club members, Camsco will donate 3% of the gross sales price of recording(s) to the Pinewoods Club.

Camsco carries many traditional and hard-to-find CDs, etc. and can supply recordings that are not in their catalog. Camsco Music, 28 Powell St, Greenwich, CT 06831; <http://www.camsco.com>

RENEWAL.

Your membership expiration date is printed on your newsletter mailing label. If you send in your renewal before you expire, you will save wear and tear on Anne, our Membership Chair, and also save the club the cost of mailing you a reminder. Thank you.

Sending us a check?

Please be sure to make it out to our official corporate name: Folk Music Society of New York, Inc, or just FMSNY. The bank doesn't like checks made out to Pinewoods. Thanks.
