November 7 - Jeff Warner & Bruce McIntyre. Bruce has spent most of his singing life as a church and oratorio soloist, but seven years ago he wandered into a traditional music session at the Pressroom in Portsmouth, NH, experienced a mighty conversion to folk music, and hasn't looked back since. With guitar, drum, bones and voice, Bruce now spends a good part of each musical year accompanying Jeff Warner and singing the songs of the American tradition.

With warmth, humor and understated scholarship, Jeff Warner connects 21st century audiences with the music and everyday lives of 19th century people. He presents musical traditions from the Outer Banks of North Carolina to the Adirondacks and coastal New England. His songs from England and America, Irish-American concertina tunes and African-American banjo tunes have "the stamp of authority and real experience" in the words of one English reviewer. He has honed his craft in front of audiences across the country at festivals, museums, clubs and schools. His songs, rich in local history and a sense of place, bring, as one writer put it, "the latest news from the distant past."

Dec 5 - Donal Maguire, student and collaborator of the great Ewan MacColl, a fine singer, mandolin and banjo player.

YE MARINERS ALL; Saturday, Nov. 13th; 8 PM ☺

Ye Mariners All is John Roberts, John Rockwell, and Larry Young. They offer a rich heritage of sea songs - rousing, historical, sentimental. John Roberts, from Worcestershire, UK, is an fine singer and player of many instruments. John Rockwell and Larry are from the seaport of Salem, MA. Rockwell plays guitar, bodhran, and bones, and has appeared in the Sea Revels. Young plays fiddle and mandolin, and has worked with, among others, Bob Franke. The group name is from a song that invites any passing sailor to drop into the pub and enjoy a pint and conviviality until shore leave ends -- or the money is gone.

THE PINWOODS CLUB NEEDS YOU!

Next year the Club is 40 years old. With all its ups and downs, the Club has been a beacon of quality music and a source of a community of shared values for a great many people. We are an entirely volunteer run organization. This sometimes makes it difficult to get done what needs to be done, but overall it has been an enormous strength because the volunteers that represent the whole membership are willing to do the work necessary. It has been a continuing source of amazement and joy to me that for 40 years the volunteers have been there and the necessary jobs have gotten done.

A lot of people have taken their turn on the Board over the decades. That too is essential, since without it burnout would be a critical problem. The Club can only keep going if there is a regular infusion of new people and new ideas. The Board is badly short-handed right now, and we face many challenges in just continuing to function. So this is a plea, as the Board's term of office ends Dec. 31, that some of you will put back into the Club something of what it has meant to you and run for the Board. When in the past we have asked for your financial support, our members have always been remarkably generous. We are now asking what is perhaps even more difficult. We are asking for some of your time and commitment each month. Do not assume that the Club will always be there for you. It continues only as long as our members are willing to shoulder some of the burden for a period of time. When that is no longer the case, the Club ceases to exist.

We could use perhaps 6 new people on the Board for 2005. You do not have to be a musician or singer, you do not have to be an expert in folk music. It helps if you have an organized mind, can tolerate a once a month meeting and an occasional committee meeting, and can work well with other dedicated people. For more information, to just talk about the Club and its future, or to put your name on the upcoming ballot, you can call me at (718) 429-3437 or President Joy Bennett at (718) 575-1906.

-Jerry Epstein

From the Editor

This is a reminder that this is a double issue for November and December. Don't forget to save it to keep track of the up-coming events. It's especially important to remember that the winter weekend will be the first weekend in February. Look for the flyer in this issue and register early!

November brings us the "Ye Mariners All" series concert, the Riverdale Sing, and both November and December bring us the Sea Music concerts, Chantey sings, Gospel & Sacred Harp Sings. December brings the series concert, "Eletfa", and the Sunnyside Song Circle.

December also brings us Board Elections. Do you want to give back to the club and help us to plan and organize our events? There are still openings for the board. Consider filling one of those openings. Contact Joy Bennett if you are interested. Don't forget to vote, both in our country's election and in our club election!!

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the September Newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gottlieb, Mariann Perseo, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Wednesday December 29th and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3).

New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club/Folk Music Society of New York, Inc.
presents:

Saturday 13 November 2004
Ye Mariners All

(John Roberts, John Rockwell, Larry Young)

at Advent Church, 8 p.m.
(Broadway @ W 93rd St, Manhattan)

Sea songs galore from three accomplished performers.

Your old-time sailor was a great one for singing. Rousing shanties to help get the work done, sentimental ballads about the comforts of home, bragging ditties of his life ashore and the young ladies (?) he enjoyed, historical tales of whaling, wrecks, and battles – all these helped Jack Tar to survive his often harsh life.

Ye Mariners All promises a great evening of singing and playing, with plenty of choruses.

Information: Heather Wood 1-212-957-8386 or hwood50@aol.com

Free to club members. General admission $18; seniors/students $10; kids $6; CD*NY members $15; TDF accepted. Handicapped accessible.

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Collages by ANN GREEN will be on exhibition at the Bloomingdale branch of the New York Public Library during the entire month of November. The Bloomingdale library is located on 100th street between Columbus and Amsterdam avenues.

Here is an update on news from PHYLLIS GREEN and RANDY COWEN. Their daughter, SARAH, now 14 years old, celebrated a beautiful bat-mitzvah last year. Their son, MATTHEW, now 10, is in the 5th grade in the Anderson program (an accelerated/gifted program in the New York City public school system). Randy and Phyllis are working hard, but happily, on a long-term renovation of their new apartment.

MARK MANIAK and MAGGIE BYE have moved away to the Boston area, We thank them for their service on the Board and wish them well.

If you have news to share, contact me at 372 Central Park West, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

LOVE POTION NUMBER 8

(A great parody of that other favorite song, by English funnyman Les Barker — used by permission. See credit line below.

— Sol Weber

I took my troubles down to Madame Ruth
You know that gypsy with the golden tooth
She hangs out a sign just beside her garden gate;
'Get your little bottles of Love Potion Number Eight.'

I told her that I'd been a flop with chicks
Since I'd used Love Potion Number Six.
She went out the back and she came back with a crate;
She said "What you need is Love Potion Number Eight".

I'd sampled her Number One; I'd tried Number Two;
Love Potion Number Three gave me three weeks in the loo;
Came back for more, tried Number Four, surprising but true;
Had Number Five and stayed alive; there's few who do.

I didn't know if it was day or night
But Number Seven left me not all right
The fate which awaits I don't care to contemplate;
She held a little bottle of Love Potion Number Eight.

She bent down and turned around and gave it a shake;
'I've added Aloe Vera and some Cadbury's Flake.'
The liquid was transparent, her expression opaque;
My eyes were closed, my mouth was not; a bad mistake.

I didn't know if I was her or him;
I'd lost my hair and gained an extra limb
And when Madame Ruth brews some new improved design
She knows where she can stick her Love Potion Number Nine.

A Review — “Manna” Shelley Posen
By Joy Bennett

Many of you know Shelley from his incredible work with Finest Kind, or his shape-note work, or as the writer/composer of great songs such as “No More Fish, No Fishermen” or “Fa-Sol-La”. A few years ago at the Old Songs Festival, Shelley surprised some of us in a workshop where he sang a song he wrote about the passing of time seen through the years at the Passover seder, “And We Sang Ha Lakhma Anya” (“this is the bread of affliction”). Those of us there were moved beyond tears, thinking of people gone from our lives and how we remember them, the joys and the sorrows. I remember talking with Shelley afterwards to share my feelings and to convince him to record that song. Shelley then sent me a tape of some of his other songs about Jewish customs & rituals, but he was somehow certain that there was no market for this. The fact that I had some small part in pushing, nudging and sometimes downright nagging Shelley to do this project (though I was only one of many in that regard) gives me great pleasure that he has indeed put out this stellar CD of songs that evoke the sadness, joy, humor, and tears of the many Jewish holidays, rituals & customs, and of life in general. That it is a wonderful mix of different styles of music (something for everyone) that, in my mind, could not have been done any better, is the icing on the cake, (er, matzoh?)

Manna actually means “what is it?” in Hebrew. It was bread from heaven that sustained the Israelites during their 40-year journey through the wilderness more than 3000 years ago.

In “Manna”, Shelley has captured much of the Jewish spirit, seeing joy through sorrow, of course often aided by food. Most Jewish rituals center around food – the abundance or the lack of it and Shelley takes us through the holidays with food.

Many talented musicians join Shelley on this CD where Klezmer abounds. Klezmer, that joyous-sad, wonderfully bluesy Jewish soul music, is blissfully performed here by Beyond the Pale. But that’s not all you’ll find. Shelley has set “The Bal Shem’s Soup” to Arthur Sullivan’s (Gilbert & Sullivan) tune for “When I, good friends, was called to the bar”. “Ram in the Thicket,” Shelley’s great gospel song about Abraham’s near sacrifice of his son Isaac, gets a wonderful bass only accompaniment (played by George Koller) that takes me back to coffeehouses of the 60s where poets would recite against the background of the bass. The vibrations of Shelley’s voice with the bass make the hair on the back of my neck stand up.

“Homen- Homentashen” has a vaudeville setting Shelley wrote with Eddie Cantor in mind. Shelley gives us lots of latkes with three songs in different styles about those tasty potato pancakes “Put the Latkes on to Fry”, done bluegrass style, “My Mother’s Latkes” with a distinctive Mariachi band feel, and the “La-La-Latke Song” almost 40s style. (Didn’t I say there was something for everyone?)

There’s a chant (Jewish Rap?) about “Rogelakh” you can use to walk off all the pounds you’ll be gaining if you eat all this wonderful food, or perhaps sing as you walk to your local bakery or to the Rogelakh man in front of 2 Broadway in Manhattan on Thursdays. So, what’s left?

Shelley has his own version of the cherry with no stone, “Four More Kashas” which tells about a wine glass with no brim, a fish that cannot swim, a matzoh that cannot break and a thirst that cannot be slaked. “Ez Gezunt” (eat in good health) tells us that if Jews were meant to eat healthy the good Lord would have given us tofu, not salami, matzoh, pastrami, etc.

“Light One Candle” tells the Chanukah story, and reminds us that sometimes a little can go a long way. There’s “Sheyne Ponim” or “beautiful face” – to understand that phrase in just about any culture, think of the elderly relative pinching your cheek as a child. You’ll find a fun song about a Deli with no tongue on the menu where the ever-changing chorus is a bit of a “tongue-twister” to sing. Another, “Azey Geyn Di Yoren,” reflects the passing of time and ends with a Yiddish pun on the title.

Fall Weekend Thoughts

What a great weekend. The trees were just beautiful and the camp's setting is always magnificent so that the surroundings lived up to my expectations; all the music was great but Troublesome Creek exceeded anything that I expected. Instrumentally they are all individually talented but together they blend to get a great old time sound; Steve Arkin on banjo, Rick Martin on fiddle, Dick Harrington on guitar, and Lorie Lichtenwalner on bass. My greatest personal pleasure was hearing the vocals of Lorie and Dick and how everyone's instruments complemented them. Their workshops on old time music and where the songs came from were fascinating. Pat Conte, of course, complemented everyone with his multi-faceted abilities. What! You weren't there? You missed a good one.

On the other hand, there was a sad aspect to the weekend since this was probably the last time we will be at Camp Freedman. We've been going there over the past 35 or so years and I'd like to pass on some of my personal comments. Certainly there have been problems some years and there are less than perfect aspects of the camp, but that would be true of any facility we have used. Over the past few years there have been fewer problems and our relations with the camp have been very good. The camp has made many physical improvements and the level of the accommodations has improved steadily – unfortunately the cost of the camp has risen commensurate with the improvements. People have been, justifiably, complaining about the high cost and attendance has dropped accordingly. However, the costs of running a camp are largely fixed and, in order to stay reasonably full, the camp is now requiring a much higher guaranteed minimum attendance. The new minimum, and our desire to lower the costs so that more can attend, make it impossible to continue at Camp Freedman. Both the camp and I are sorry to see the relationship end.

Through the hard work of our president, board members, and some club members, we have found several other locations which should be excellent for our weekends. Do join us on future weekends.

Shelley performs all the superb vocals on this CD (with 3 additional vocalists on “Rogelakh”), plays guitar and banjo, and has a host of other marvelous musicians from many different styles. Shelley provides a glossary, read back to front, for all of us who either don't know or have forgotten what these Hebrew and Yiddish words and phrases mean.

I love all the offerings on this CD. I can't get Ram in the Thicket out of my head, but the one that touches my heart still is And We Sang Ha Lakhma Anya. I think about all our friends who gather with family, and those of us whose friends are our family. Of the chairs, some empty, the air still filled with the memories of those who once filled them. Of those who come now to fill the once empty chairs. We find the strength to go on in the circle of life with all its sorrows and its joys.

Whatever your taste, this CD will satisfy. Like the old commercial “you don't have to be Jewish to love Levy's” (rye bread), neither do you to love this CD. Jewish ritual (and food) may have been the setting for this CD, but there is something here for all people who gather to celebrate life, often around food. For the celebration of life is what this CD is all about. And, whatever your musical taste, you will find on this CD a song or two (or three) you love. Shelly's superb singing and his arrangements of the varied instrumental backdrops are marvelous. That this CD has something for everyone, Jewish or not, makes it a wonderful gift for any person, especially if that person loves great music, or even just food.

CD/tape Review

FAITH PETRIC: "When Did We Have Sauerkraut?"

(A Collection of Extraordinary and Outrageous Songs)

This lively octogenarian, still going strong, is always fun to have around, a walking treasure house of songs that are humorous, or touching, and yes, sometimes outrageous. This album is chock full of very special songs. Some are old favorites, others are unfamiliar, but none are dull. And Faith delivers them with pizzazz! You can almost hear the twinkle in her eyes. Many other musicians chime in, quite effectively.

Included among the 18 selections -- the title song plus "Here's to Mother Nature" (by the Berrymans); Eric Idle's "Song of the Planets"; a couple by Mark Graham, "Their Brains Were Small and They Died" and "High and Lonesome"; "The Gasman Cometh" (Flanders and Swann); "The Kuglesburg Bank"; "Bury Me In My Overalls" by Malvina Reynolds; Lee Hayes' "Eternal Life"; naughty numbers like "The Priest Song" (about women being excluded from the priesthood); and eight others. A charming little album you'll play many times. A word booklet is included.

The CD is $15, the tape $10. Postage is included. Send checks to: Center Records, 885 Clayton, San Francisco, CA 94117. Info: FaithPet@aol.com ; 415-661-2217.

CD/book Review

JOANNE HAMMIL: "Rounds and Partner Songs"

Vol. 1, CD and book; Vol. 2, CD and book

"Wonderful songs, great rounds," said Pete Seeger about this enthusiastic (and very talented) performer and composer. Early on, her prize-winning "Pizza Boogie" album was a big hit (Bob Sherman played ten of its songs on Woody's Children!), followed by another good one, "The World's Gonna Listen."

Joanne writes terrific rounds, and 53 of her best are included in these collections. Volume 1 includes the popular "A Question of Tempo"; beauties like "Dreams of Harmony" and "Dance With Me"; fun rounds like "Popcorn", "Breakfast", "Ecology Round", and "Mud"; elegant ones like "In the Bathtub" and "Canons Are Fun?"; thoughtful ones like "The Heart" and "Time's Soft Wisdom"; holiday rounds like "Candles, Candles"; amusing words of wisdom, as the different generations try to communicate -- "You Don't Know How Hard It Is"; exciting African-style cyclical songs, "One Family" and "Hold On"; sardonic examples like "Constancy" and "You're Right"; and many others. The book and the CD booklet include useful information about singing rounds, arrangements, and more.

Volume 2 continues on with great rounds like "Rules", "Left, Right", the gorgeous "Kate's Full Moon Sing", "Happy Birthday Round" (her own version), "Toshi's Clam Chowder", "For Pete's Sake", "Hope", and on and on.

Some of the rounds are performed a capella, others are accompanied by a large variety of instruments, in wonderful arrangements. Joanne's singing is superb, and a long list of other singers, children and adults, some well-known names, are excellent as well.

These are "must have" items for rounds lovers (AND everyone else). If you're not yet a rounds lover, be warned! Listening to these CDs may turn you INTO one. The CDs do come with printed words. Each item is $15, any two for $25, all four for $40. A bargain! Shipping: $1 for one item, add'l items 75 cents each. JHO Music, 70 Capitol St, Watertown, MA 02472.
