Dennis Stroughmatt et l'Esprit Creole: Thurs., March 10th; 7:30 pm

Join us for an exuberant evening of Creole tunes, not from Louisiana, not from Arcadia, but a band upholding the tradition from midway between, in the Midwest. We are thrilled to bring them to NYC! Note the start time of 7:30, doors open at 7:00pm.

Fingers and bow flying, Dennis Stroughmatt takes listeners on a musical odyssey into Upper Louisiana Creole culture. Taught to play fiddle by local Creole fiddlers living along the Mississippi River, Dennis is now the authority on this regional pocket of American antiquity. A vibrant blend of Celtic, Canadian and Old Time sounds, this unique music bridges gaps between contemporary Canadian and Louisiana Cajun styles. Preserved by families in the Ozark foothills, the music remains largely intact, true to the traditions passed down over three centuries.

Dennis is accompanied by Doug Hawf, a lifelong musician and a wizard of stringed instruments. Doug also performs with his family bluegrass band as well as the Vincennes University String Ensemble. He also shares the joy of music through his music store and with his many students. Band's website: www.creolefiddle.com/creolefiddle.com

At OSA Hall, 220 E 23rd St, Suite 707 (between 2nd & 3rd Avenues, Manhattan). Admission: general public $20; members of FMSNY $18; full-time students and those under 17 $10. Information: 212-957-8386.

Bob Malenky & John Ziv; Friday, March 18th, 8pm

Bob Malenky has been playing folk, blues and related music for over 50 years. During the 1960s, he was a Washington Square folkie, and he went on to learn from and play with blues performers such as Muddy Waters and Lightnin' Hopkins, and has toured and recorded with Sonny Terry. Bob is also a scholar of blues, folk and world folk music. John Ziv is primarily known as a songwriter who has written more than 150 songs (actually, he has no idea how many songs he's written), many of which have easy-to-learn, sing-along choruses. Some of his songs are funny, others address serious subjects, and all of them have something to say, even if he has no idea what that is. Together, Bob and John are "Live From The Livingroom."

Held at the apartment of John Ziv & Deborah Rubin. 243 West 98th Street, Apt. 6A (just west of Broadway), New York, NY 10025. The doorbell code is 22 plus the little bell symbol on the bottom right of the intercom panel. Do not press

Help Fund the Premiere of a Work by the Weavers' Fred Hellerman

The New York Jazzharmonic wants to premiere a composition by music legend Fred Hellerman never before performed in public. Fred co-founded The Weavers along with the legendary Pete Seeger in the 1950's. He's on in years and somewhat frail now, but very excited to finally hear his composition come to life.

Jazzharmonic, a big band, plays primarily swinging jazz, but with strong crossover elements of classical and world music. The free concert is set for Tuesday, June 28, 2016 as part of the Washington Square Music Festival. Donate at <http://igg.me/at/fredfundraiser>.

From the Editor
Eileen Pentel

March comes, I hope, with sunshine and no snow, but lots of music. We have our usual Folk Open Sing, Good Coffeehouse concert with Harry Bolick this month, and Old time Jams all in very busy Brooklyn. Not to be outshined, we also have our Sunnyside Sings in Queens, the Shanty Sing on Staten Island, and The Irish Traditional Music Session in Manhattan. Also in Manhattan we have Dennis Stroughmatt et l' Sprit Creole concert and also another Manhattan concert with John Ziv and Bob Malenky. Join us also for the 3rd annual Pete Seeger concert.

Our Spring Weekend is coming up. We just wanted you to know that we will have to raise our prices by a few dollars, because, as with so many things, our expenses have gone up. We will still have a great time and hope to see you there.

We welcome Clarice Kjerulff to our board. She was voted on to fill one of the vacancies of the board. Thanks go to Heather Wood and Leslie Berman who counted all of the ballots you sent in for the December elections. It is very important that you cast your vote as the elections come up and we thank all of those who took the time to send your ballots in.

Thank you to our newsletter volunteers, Marilyn Suffet, Betsy Mayer, Don Wade, and Eileen Pentel (who came a little later in the evening). All are welcome to our mailings! Join us on Monday, March 28, see page 4.

Crisis of Place: Preserving Folk and Vernacular Architecture in New York; Sat., April 2, 2016

Folklorists, architects, historic preservationists, museum professionals, community members, and students will come together to address questions concerning the significant crisis in our understanding of everyday landscapes and the built environment. Join an invigorating discussion in plenary and panel presentations at this conference sponsored by the New York Folklore Society:

- What is the folk and vernacular architecture of New York State? What makes it "folk" or "vernacular?"
- How are the conditions of urban and rural life in 2016 challenging traditional architectural practices among various ethnic and regional communities?
- Who is sustaining vernacular design and construction in the face of globalization and gentrification, and why?

Registration (8-9:30AM) is free but RSVP required, emchale\(at\)nyfolklore.orgnyfolklore.org)
At The Cooper Union, Rose Auditorium, 41 Cooper Square, NYC 10003; on Third Avenue between 6th and 7th Streets).

Share the Joy of Dance, Music & Song CDSS Summer Camps 2016

We believe in the joy and strength that dance, music and song bring to people. Our summer camp programs are a place for skill building, learning and sharing, having fun, and taking back what we learn to our community. Laughter and learning—so evident at a camp week, whether it's Pinewoods (MA), Ogontz (NH), Timber Ridge (WV) or Cavell (MI), and whether your passion is dancing contras, squares, English country, morris or sword, singing songs up into the sky, or filling the air with music—that feeling will go home with you. The skills learned and connections made at camp can last a lifetime. Adults love it, families thrive on it. Join us this summer!

Fair Trade Music 1000

The FMSNY executive board has agreed to the American Federation of Musicians Local 1000 Fair Trade Music principles for our concert program. In essence it means that our club agrees to pay at least union scale to the performers in those concerts, including house concerts, for which we are the primary sponsor. Our agreement does not cover non-concert events such as sing-arounds and weekends, nor does it cover concerts featuring our own club members and concerts where we are a cosponsor but from which we receive no income. For more information please visit: www.fairtrademusic1000.wordpress.com.
