Gail Levine-Fried, submitted the following piece:

“Six Degrees of Separation” / We’re All Interconnected

Longtime FMSNY member, Gail Levine-Fried, is also a Patron member of Jewish War Veterans Post #1 in Manhattan of which her father was a Past Commander. At many of the Post’s events over the years, Gail was impressed with Hannah Deutsch who had served as a Nurse during WW II. Hannah held herself erect, was quite articulate and was on the National Board of the J WV as well as being a “Survivor.” I wanted to get to know Hannah better and to learn more about her incredible Life Journey to this country as a member of the “KinderTransport” from Germany to England.

So, Gail and her husband, Bob, reached out to Hannah and visited her at her home in Jackson Heights, Queens, on Sunday, August 6th. During the course of their long conversation, mention was made of Eileen Pentel in the context of her organizing a Holiday Chorus to cheer residents at the Regal Heights Nursing Home in Jackson Heights.

At the mention of Eileen’s name, Hannah’s face lit up: “Eileen is a good friend of mine! I’ve known her for many years! As a matter of fact, I’m seeing her tomorrow.” Hannah was all aglow.

We couldn’t get over what a small world it truly is and all the inter-connections we have through our varied interests and involvements. Bob and I are planning to visit Hannah again in September and hope that Eileen and Don Wade can join us for lunch at a restaurant and more conversation. This experience confirms my belief that we are all inter-connected through acts of loving kindness and service to others. Keep Reaching Out!

A Message from Old Songs

For the past two years, FMSNY has sponsored the appearance of a traditional performer at the June Old Songs Festival. 2015 was Sheila Kay Adams, 2016 was Matthew Byrne.

"Thank you for your support in continuing the annual tradition of gathering the music community ... a tradition that brings people together of all backgrounds.
--Andy Spence, Executive/Artistic Director"

The Old Songs Festival of Traditional Music & Dance occurs each year on the last full weekend in June. The focus of the festival, as stated by its name, is on traditional folk music, be it of the Americas, the British Isles and Celtic lands, greater Europe, or, indeed, anywhere in the world. <http://festival.oldsongs.org/>

Fair Trade Music 1000

The FMSNY executive board has agreed to the American Federation of Musicians Local 1000 Fair Trade Music principles for our concert program. In essence it means that our club agrees to pay at least union scale to the performers in those concerts, including house concerts, for which we are the primary sponsor. Our agreement does not cover non-concert events such as sing-arounds and weekends, nor does it cover concerts featuring our own club members and concerts where we are a cosponsor but from which we receive no income. For more information please visit: www.fairtrade-music1000.wordpress.com.
