DEBRA COWAN; Friday, March 8th, 8 PM

Debra Cowan loves to sing, and backs herself up on guitar or performs unaccompanied. With her own blend of traditional and contemporary song, Debra engages her audiences and invites them to sing along. She also shares the history of her traditional material, which is an integral part of the songs she sings. Debra Cowan possesses that special talent which can make the old songs live again and has a rare understanding of traditional song and its place in our culture. She is not only a technically fine singer, but a great interpreter of songs from many traditions. Debra will offer a variety of music including sea chanteys, work and union songs, songs from a woman's point of view, and funny songs. Her two most recent albums are The Long Grey Line and The Songs and Ballads of Hattie Mae Tyler Cargill. Presented with the cooperation of Polytechnic University: Admission: $10 (members, $9, Polytech students free).

At: Polytechnic University, Wunsch Hall, just over the Brooklyn or Manhattan bridges in Brooklyn; right off the Tillary St. exit from the BQE. (See map, page 10.) By train: A, C, F (Jay St.-Borough Hall) and M, N, R (Lawrence Street) are closest. #2, 3, 4, 5 are five min. walk (Borough Hall). All are 1st or 2nd stop in Brooklyn, 15-20 min. from midtown Manhattan. Go into the open Metrotech Commons—right across from the Marriott. The student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the far end of the Commons, beyond the trees, looks like an old brown church (which it was). Street parking is free after 7 on Jay St., Tillary St., or Flatbush Ave. Flatbush Ave 2 blocks south of Tillary Street has lots of meters which are legal after 7:00 (but tow-away before 7pm). If you park on Flatbush, walk 2 blocks West past the Chase Bank building into the open Commons; the student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the near side of the Commons, looks like an old brown church. Call for info or directions: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM).

OLD TIME STRING BAND GET-TOGETHER; Sunday, March 10th; 1:30 pm

Musicians are invited to play music in Park Slope, Brooklyn. Join us on the second Sunday of the month. Call David Stevens, 718-369-3319, for details.

Stämbandet & Nzinga's Daughters; Friday, March 15th; 8 PM ☺

Stämbandet's mission is to help preserve and foster the rich choral heritage of Scandinavia by presenting traditional vocal music from the Middle Ages to the present, performed in native languages of Swedish, Norwegian, Icelandic, Danish, and Finnish. Stämbandet often breaks into six- and seven-part harmonies, sung in three languages. Stämbandet also performs trall, where singers imitate fiddlers playing dance music.

Nzinga's Daughters will take you on a musical voyage from slavery to freedom with traditional African songs, a cappella plantation songs (spirituals), and stories. They will show you how enslaved blacks, free blacks, and white abolitionists created secret codes, signs, and signals, committed them to memory, and passed them by word of mouth, leading to the Underground Railroad. They also perform Freedom Songs from the 1960s, nostalgic tunes, R&B, and rap.

At the Advent Lutheran Church, Broadway at 93rd St., Manhattan. FREE to NYPFMC members; $18 general public; $15 CDNY members; $10 seniors & full-time students; $6 children under 12.

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

The merry month of March allows us to make more music to enjoy and sing and play. Coming up are the Sea Music Concert, Debra Cowan and the double feature of Stambandet & Nzinga's Daughters. We also have our Folk Open Sing, Old time String Band Get-together, Sacred Harp Singing, the Gospel & Sacred Harp Sing, the Riverdale Sing, and the Traditional Music Open Mike & Folk Music Jam. For the latter, check with Folk Fone for the new location. It's also time to start to sign up for the Spring Weekend at Camp Freedman with Bill and Livia Vanaver, Dick Swain and others.

Unfortunately the newsletters were not ready from the printer to be mailed out on time in February. Thanks and apologies to Suzanne Gottlieb and Brenda Pena, who showed up at the club office and found the mailing had been cancelled. Thanks to the help of people on the winter weekend — which was great fun by the way — we were able to mail out the newsletter at Holiday Hills. Thank you Isabel Goldstein for organizing the mailing and supplying us with the list of volunteers. They were: Sara Boffa, Debra Edelman, Mark Edelman, Bernice Epstein, Debbie Feldman, Isabel Goldstein, Vicki Horowitz, Judy Mahler, and Don Wade. And a special thanks to Becky Berman who hand delivered newsletters to members present on the weekend to save postage.

Won't you join us on Tuesday April 2nd and help mail out the April newsletter? (See page 4 for details.)

PINEWOODS CLUB NEEDS A NEW TREASURER.

We are seeking a competent, organized, and responsible member of the Club to take over the critically important position of Treasurer. It is a position without which the Club cannot function. Our current Treasurer, Helen Pinto, will be moving away from New York in the next few months. The Club's financial record keeping is all computerized, and thus the entering of information and reporting is quite easy. There is abundant help available as needed from current members of the Board who know the system. Once a year the Treasurer prepares our reporting form to the IRS. This is a very simple form, since we are a non-profit and pay no taxes. The Treasurer receives checks from Club functions, makes deposits, and writes checks to pay bills. Helen will be happy to work with an incoming person to familiarize him/her with the system.

The Treasurer is a member of the Board of Directors and attends the monthly meeting. Our by-laws allow the board of directors to vote additional members of the board to any vacant spots. Since we currently have open positions on the board, anyone interested in being treasurer can be voted onto the board.

If you are such an organized and responsible person, and you can use a computer, and if you would like to really help out the Club with a major need, please consider talking to us about this office. You can get more information by calling the Finance Committee convener, Jerry Epstein, at (718) 429-3437, or Helen directly for more information on how the position actually works at (718) 426-5484. The Club is absolutely dependent on the help of those members who can contribute their time to keep it going. Think about it.

E-Mail?

Dear members: E mail is a great way for us to get in touch with you, and for you to get in touch with us. Many of you have given us your e-mail addresses, but many have not. If you would like to be on the club's e-mail address list, please send a message to nypinewood@aol.com. Also, if you think you gave us your e mail address but you haven't gotten any messages, maybe it was illegible or we got it wrong for some reason. If so, send it to us again on line. E-mail addresses of board members are also listed in this newsletter. Let us hear from you.

Letter from the Winter Weekend

[Bill Locke and Judy Woodring came to the Winter Weekend for the first time. They are friends of Ted Greenstone and live near Pittsburgh.]

Judy and I had a wonderful time at your club meeting this weekend. I told Judy that of all the places that I have gone to play with people, never did I come away so happy. People were welcoming, they made every effort to connect, to be friendly, and to make us feel that we belonged. We will certainly be back.

I do want to join the club. I will also certainly come to this “winter weekend” next year if I am able. Perhaps I will be able to get to some of the other weekends.

I love you folks.

Bill
