FOLK OPEN SING; Wednesdays, Sept. 4 & Oct.2; 7pm

Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, children and a snack to share. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West (basement), Brooklyn (near 2nd St.). Directions: F train to 7th Ave.; Q train to 7th Ave.; 2/3 train to Grand Army Plaza. Hosted by Ethical Culture/Good Coffeehouse, Pinewoods Folk Music Club, Alison Kelley, and Frank Woerner. For info: Alison Kelley, 718-636-6341.

SACRED HARP SINGING; Sunday, September 15th; 5pm
Note new time (changed from 2:30pm)

Co-sponsored and hosted by St. Bartholomew's Church in Manhattan, on the 3rd Sunday of each month through June, 2:30 to 5:30pm, 109 East 50th St. We continue the colonial American tradition of lively (high-volume, up-tempo) four-part, unaccompanied gospel singing. Shaped notes, indicating fa-so-la intervals, make sight-reading easy. Instruction provided; beginners welcome! Sacred Harp hymnals available for loan or purchase. No fee; contributions collected. Free parking (Distinctive Parking, 51st between Lexington and 3rd Avenues; your church ticket is good until midnight)! Questions: Gail Harper 212-750-8977.

RIVERDALE SING; Thursday, September 19th; 7:30-10 pm

A sing in the Bronx the third Thursday each month! Bring instruments, voices, and songs to share. At the Riverdale Presbyterian Church, 4765 Henry Hudson Parkway (between 246-249 Streets, west side of parkway). Go down the driveway to the double red doors off the parking area. The sing is in the auditorium. On site parking for the first 18 cars. Admission is $2. Information: 718-549-1344.

SUNNYSIDE SONG CIRCLE; Sunday, September 22nd; 2-7 pm

The first session of the Sunnyside Song Circle for the new season will take place Sunday, September 22, 2002, from 2 to 7 PM at the home of Steve & Marilyn Suffet. The address is 41-05 47th Street, just off Skillman Avenue, in Sunnyside, Queens, NY. For information or directions, please call (718) 786-1533. Bring voices, instruments, and songs to share. All acoustic musical styles are welcome, especially traditional. Snacks and beverages are also welcome.

GOSPEL & SACRED HARP SING; Sunday, Sept. 29; 3PM

Join us for singing gospel, plus songs from the Sacred Harp book. This is 4-part harmony sung from written music, so you should be able to carry a tune; sight-singing helpful but not required. Bring food for a potluck supper (host is supplying drinks). At the home of Bonnie Burgess, 124 W. 93rd St., apt. 6F (between Columbus and Amsterdam Ave's), Manhattan; 212-865-4517. (Allergic folks note: 2 cats in residence.) Subways: IRT 1,2, or 3 train to 96th St. (back of train if going uptown; use 93 St exit), or IND "C" train to 96 St. Other info: Isabel, 212-866-2029.

NEWSLETTER MAILING; Tuesday, October 1st; 7 PM

We need your help to mail out the next Newsletter. Join the important band of volunteers that sticks the stamps and labels and staples the pages to mail out this newsletter. At the Club office, 450 7th Ave., #972 (between 34 & 35 St.). Info: 718-426-8555.

JOE ELIAS; Friday, October 4th; 8 PM

The Ladino language evolved from ancient Castilian among Sephardic Jews expelled from Spain in 1492. Ladino music evolved with the language. Vocalist and guitarist Joe Elias is one of the very few contemporary performers of Ladino music who has learned his material through oral and instrumental traditions transmitted from generation to generation. Presented with the cooperation of Polytechnic University: Admission: $13 (members, $10, Polytech students free).

At: Polytechnic University, Wunsch Hall, just over the Brooklyn or Manhattan bridges in Brooklyn; right off the Tillary St. exit from the BQE. (See map, page 10.) By train: A, C, F (Jay St.-Borough Hall) and M, N, R (Lawrence Street) are closest. #2, 3, 4, 5 are five min. walk (Borough Hall). All are 1st or 2nd stop in Brooklyn, 15-20 min. from midtown Manhattan. Go into the open Metrotech Commons—right across from the Marriott. The student center (Wunsch Hall) is at the far end of the Commons, beyond the trees, looks like an old brown church (which it was). Street parking is free after 7 on Jay St., Tillary St., or Flatbush Ave. Flatbush Ave 2 blocks south of Tillary Street has lots of meters which are legal after 7 pm (but tow-away before). If you park on Flatbush, walk into the commons 2 blocks West past the Chase Bank building. The Bank will be on your left, and a new building will be on your immediate right. Turn right at the corner of the new building and continue to the next building. The student center will be right there. Call for info: (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM).

MAUD KARPELES & HER LEGACY SEMINAR

with GEORGINA BOYES & JACK LANGSTAFF; Wednesday, Oct. 9; 7:30PM

Jack knew Maud Karples and has been an intimate part of the folksong revival; Georgina is a noted English folklorist. Although they have never met, they both have insights into the work of Maud Karpeles. Join them for this discussion -- Advance registration is required, please see more details and the registration information in the article on pages 9-10.

TO THE MEMBERSHIP

You will notice that there is a revised dues structure for the club effective September 1. The Board of course regrets the need for an increase, but at times there is no choice. I reported on our financial difficulties in the May Newsletter, and we had a very good open forum at the Spring weekend on what steps to take. There was an overwhelming consensus that the dues were absurdly low for what you get, including the free concert series. The only dues rise in a very long time was when the free concert series was instituted, and that rise went directly to support the series. So it was really clear that an adjustment was necessary. We have been very conscious of the need to maintain the low income category at as low a dues as humanly possible. Over the long history of the Club, every time we have raised the dues, there has been a temporary drop in membership. I would appeal to all, at this time when the Club so badly needs all the members we can find, that you might consider your dues a contribution to the continuation of this movement of home-made music that we all cherish. Stay with us. Our membership has been overwhelmingly supportive at all past times when we have called on you. If you want to comment or discuss any of the clubs financial issues, please feel free to contact me as convener of the Board's Finance Committee: jerepst@att.net, (718) 429-3437.

-Jerry Epstein

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

We hope your summer has been a good one, with much music and many festivals. We enjoyed folk music week and Family Week at Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts. We're looking forward to the fall weekend which will be in October. Don't wait too long to sign up. This September offers great opportunities for us to make our own music—the Gospel and Sacred Harp Sings, the Folk Open Sing, and the Riverdale and Sunnyside Sings. Don't forget the Old-Time/Bluegrass Jamboree! October brings some concerts, including Joe Elias who had to re-schedule due to illness last year and a unique workshop with limited space—by Georgina Boyes and Jack Langstaff. Register now!

We recently saw the passing of two of our members—Becky Berman and Murray Cartan.

Becky's good cheer was an inspiration, even as she faced her illness with courage and good humor—not to mention her crafts she always brought to help schools and the disabled in Guatemala. There will be memorial service for her October 13th. It's hard to imagine a weekend without her. She died with her daughters and friends visiting her, singing to her and surrounded by love.

Murray's cheerful presence and joy in the music gave the weekends and concerts a special feeling. He somehow made people feel more comfortable and helped to give the events a family feeling. There was a memorial service held while we were away at folk music week. I think he was singing with us all that week.

We will miss both of them.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the July-August Newsletter thank you to: Millicent Browne, Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Suzanne Gotlieb, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, Morey Weisman, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Tuesday October 1 and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

The Folk Process

ISABEL GOLDSTEIN writes:

I am happy to announce the birth of my grandniece, DANIELLE ALENA FELDMAN, on Jan. 20, 2002. Proud parents of the baby, who was 5 pounds, 4 ounces at birth, are my niece, AMY, and her husband, DAVID.

Amy is teaching me Babycare 1.1, so I can be helpful as a babysitter. So far, my own self-evaluation is that I get an A in pushing the carriage, a B in feeding, and a B- or C in diaper changing. But I'm still learning.

Sounds great, Isabel. Enjoy that baby!

Hope that everyone had a wonderful summer. How about relating some of those summer experiences to the rest of us?

BECKY BERMAN

The Club deeply mourns the loss on August 14 of dedicated Board member, and great friend to so many, Becky Berman, after an 8-year heroic battle with cancer. Her unflinching spirit and determination, her good humor, and her dedication to selfless work for the Club and for the less fortunate, especially in Guatemala, throughout this period were truly an inspiration. Very few could have waged this battle the way she did. We saw her the night before her death, and we had a good round of singing. She kept asking for more, especially for The Massa of the Sheepfold. Music was playing for her as she passed. I am reminded, however, of these words:

*Each day I'll do some noble deed, in helping those who are in need,
My life on Earth is but a span, so I will do the best I can.*

*Life's evening sun is sinking low, a few more days and I must go
To meet the deeds that I have done, where there will be no setting sun.*

*To be a child of God each day, my light must shine along the way;
I'll sing his praise while ages roll, and try to help some troubled soul.*

While traveling down life's weary road, I'll try to lift some traveler's load, I'll try to turn his night to day, make flowers bloom along the way.

*The only life that can endure is one that's kind and good and pure;
And so for God I'll take my stand, and try to lend a helping hand,*

Life's evening sun is sinking low. . . .

-Jerry Epstein

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Transitions Foundation of America,
PO Box 669004 (A-146), Miami Springs, FL 33266

There will be a memorial/remembrance service on Sunday, October 13, 2002 at 3:30pm at the Central Unitarian Church, 156 Forest Avenue, Paramus, NJ (Forest Ave. Exit on Rt 4)

Murray Cartan Remembered

I remember Murray Cartan from the early days of the Club, going back to at least 1970 or earlier. I remember him as the most unassuming, easygoing, non-judgemental, and warm gentleman you could ever hope to meet. He loved the music, but primarily he loved the making of music and the sharing of it in a crowd of other enthusiasts, which is why he was a guaranteed regular at the Club's Winter Weekend for so very many years. I found Murray to be totally at home and happy in these situations, never needing to be a center of attention, never needing to monopolize, just being in the music making, epitomizing the central fact that only part of the Club's importance is in the support and presentation of traditional music. The other part, without which we would not be what we are, is the extended family, in good times and bad, that is centered on our love for the music and the sharing of it. Murray was family and will be sorely missed.

Maud Karpeles & Her Legacy - Seminar by Georgina Boyes, with memories of Maud from Jack Langstaff
Wed. Oct. 9, 7:30 p.m.

Georgina Boyes is a folklorist of considerable note from England, traveling with Coope, Boyes, & Simpson. We seized the opportunity to have this seminar on a topic of great interest to those interested in the background of both traditional song and dance.

Maud Karpeles, and her sister Helen, were founders of the English Folk Dance Society (1911) after having been in a tiny folk dance club from 1910 which was taught by the great collector Cecil Sharp. Maud was teaching and demonstrating English Dance with Sharp at the first predecessor of Pinewoods Camp in Elliott, Maine, in 1915. Here's the proof: Sharp at the piano and Maud preparing to dance a Morris jig. Seated behind Sharp is the great dancer Claude Wright.

It was Maud who traveled with Sharp to the Appalachian Mountains in 1916 and 1918 on the trips that yielded such an enormous wealth of traditional songs and ballads. Sharp notated the tunes and Maud wrote down the words. After Sharp's death in 1924, Maud embarked on her own collecting career, producing, among many others, one of the earliest collections of songs from Newfoundland.

She continued also to teach English country dance and Morris. Jack Langstaff remembers Maud teaching Morris at Pinewoods in the 1930s. She was an active leader in the International Folk Music Council for decades, and was its president for a number of years.

Her sister Helen married Douglas Kennedy (nephew of the great Scottish collector, Marjorie Kennedy Frazier) around 1918. Peter Kennedy is their son. Douglas took over the presidency of the EFDSS after Sharp's death in 1924. The first 'S' for 'Song' was added around 1920 when the EFDS merged with the Folk Song Society. The Folk Song Society in turn dates from 1898 when Kate Lee discovered the Copper family. So many connections. Douglas, Helen, and Maud were active in collecting, teaching, and leadership well into the 1970s, and Douglas even into the 1980s. He died at age 97.

In 1971 I wrote a review for this Newsletter of Maud's biography of Sharp, which I found utterly fascinating. I had gotten the book from Jack. I had met Helen Creighton (the great collector of Nova Scotia tradition) at her home that summer and had put her on the Club's mailing list. She then sent a copy of my review to Maud, who then wrote to me. Maud and I had a correspondence for about a year, which regrettably I have lost. She was not at all happy with what she saw as the direction of the English Revival, and said to me, in essence, "Maybe America can again show us the way." I was never clear on what she meant by that. Georgina will have much information on Maud's feelings about the English revival and the revival's feelings about her. In her last letter (1974 I think), she told me that if I did not get to England that summer, she probably would not make it. Douglas did a workshop/concert for us that October and told me that Maud had died. Truly a great lady of the revival of song and dance, and worth knowing a lot more about.

Jack Langstaff knew and worked with Maud for 40 years; he will have many personal recollections and fascinating background. Georgina and Jack have never met, so this will be a great confluence of generations and countries, all based on the history of this great movement of which we are a part. There is a lot more information on those early days in the Pinewoods Camp Archives, and I will be able to bring a little of it to the event. We feel it will be an event of some historic importance, and a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Weekend Help Wanted

Full and Partial Scholarships are available in exchange for work done on our folk music weekends (Spring, Fall, and Winter). Some of these essential jobs are assigned far in advance so please think about the FALL weekend now! Contact the Club President, Joy Bennett, (718) 575-1906 if you are interested in any of the jobs below. Jobs are filled at the Exec. Board meeting 2-4 months preceding each weekend. All jobs are done on Spring and Fall weekends and only those marked (WW) are done on Winter Weekends.

Weekend Chair: A management job with responsibility for the performance of all of the other jobs. On the weekend is the club's contact with the manager of the facility we are using. (half scholarship) (WW)

Typist/Room Assigner: Types the address list and assigns rooms; sends out the advance schedules. It helps to know a lot of club members and be able to arrive earlier to help greet arrivals at camp. (half scholarship) (WW)

Transportation: Tries to find rides to and from camp for all who need them. Gets and gives out info. on public transportation if needed. (full) (WW)

Waiters: (4-5) Set & clear tables, serve meals. (full scholarships)

Baby-sitter: (Depends on need.) Cares for smaller children, particularly during evening concerts. (full Scholarship)

Lifeguard (certified): Works at waterfront during the day. Camp Freedman only. (full scholarship)

Sunnyside Song Circle "Open Mike" A Charming Success

By Morey Weisman (photographs by Joel Landy)

The first Pinewood's sponsored Annual Sunnyside Song Open Microphone event took place Sunday, June 9, 2002 at "Belle's Off the Boulevard" (43rd Street, one block north of Queens Blvd.) in Sunnyside, Queens, NY. It was a charming and lively evening in a cozy tavern whose proprietor, Belle Rodriguez, the barkeep, proved to be a most gracious hostess as well as a folk music aficionado. The relaxing ambiance of her bar enhanced the varied musical and dance presentations of local talent, deftly assembled by our Joel Landy and ably supported by Stephen Suffet.

A popular neighborhood hangout was converted into a musical sanctuary revealing eager local talent - songs - dances - assorted instruments - for the flowering of individual aspirations; the "seed" of personal joy. This event is a positive reflection of the Pinewoods "spirit" of encouraging individual expression and developing talent.

The skillful organizing of Pinewood's Joel and Stephen, plus the perceptive arrangements with a receptive management, made for a gratifying evening for all, which I hope will be repeated next year.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the FALL weekend for the George Parker Scholarship, the Mayer Scholarship and the Lil Appel Scholarship. These funds provide full scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please tell us in a letter why you feel you qualify for a scholarship; the most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

Please send your letter by October 1st to:

Scholarship Funds

In an effort to make our weekends available to more members there are now several scholarship funds set up :

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George's parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy's father Charles Mayer.

Suzanne Szasz Shorr Scholarship - a new fund which, when operational, will provide a scholarship to CDSS Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to "Folk Music Society of New York" (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our office, 450 Seventh Ave. #972, New York, NY 10123-0101. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter).

The Lil Appel Scholarship is an independent fund which provides scholarship support for the spring and fall weekends to an individual who has a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing. This fund is newly established by a loving group of regulars in memoriam to Lil's 35+ years of bi-weekly Friday night sings, "a breeding and feeding ground for many of today's accomplished singers and musicians." Contributors of $25 or more will receive a copy of the 64 page "I Remember Lil" book of loving remembrances. For information, or to contribute, contact Alice Backer at (914) 993-0618 or Drew Smith at (201) 444-2833.

E-Mail?

Dear members: E mail is a great way for us to get in touch with you, and for you to get in touch with us. Many of you have given us your e-mail addresses, but many have not. If you would like to be on the club's e-mail address list, please send a message to nypinewood@aol.com. Also, if you think you gave us your e mail address but you haven't gotten any messages, maybe it was illegible or we got it wrong for some reason. If so, send it to us again on line. E-mail addresses of board members are also listed in this newsletter. Let us hear from you.

Joe Elias
Traditional Ladino Musician
Vocals & Guitar

Friday • October 4, 2002 • 8 PM
Wunsch Hall • Polytechnic University
Metrotech Center • Brooklyn, NY

Admission: $13. NY Pinewoods members: $10.
Reduced admission for students. Children, limited income
Polytechnic students: free.

The Ladino language evolved from ancient Castilian among Sephardic Jews expelled from Spain in 1492. Ladino music evolved with the language. Joe Elias is one of the very few singers of Ladino music who has learned his material through oral and instrumental traditions transmitted from generation to generation.

Close to the Brooklyn Marriott Hotel, Fulton Mall, and the Jay Street–Borough Hall & Lawrence Street subway stops.

Wunsch Hall, the Polytechnic University student center, is located in Metrotech Center in downtown Brooklyn, easily accessible by public transportation and close to the Marriott Hotel. The nearest subway stops are Lawrence Street on the M, N, and R lines, and Jay Street – Borough Hall on the A, C, and F lines. Ample free on-street parking is available after 7:00 PM.
