Membership Rates to Increase

The club board has voted to increase membership rates, effective with all memberships expiring after 30 September 2005.

We regret the necessity, brought about by a combination of falling membership numbers and the increase in costs of printing, office space, etc., plus the anticipated increase in postage costs.

Membership type	Current rate	New rate as of 10/1/2005
low-income individual	$20.00	$25.00
low-income family		$30.00 (new category)
long-distance individual	$28.00	$30.00
long-distance family	$43.00	$48.00
1-yr individual	$35.00	$38.00
2-yr individual	$65.00	$70.00
1-yr family	$50.00	$55.00
2-yr family	$95.00	$100.00

Perspicacious members will note that, whenever your membership expires, you can save a few bucks by renewing before the 30 September rate change.

Treasurer

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

Sending us a check?

Please be sure to make it out to our official corporate name: Folk Music Society of New York, Inc, or just FMSNY. The bank doesn't like checks made out to Pinewoods. Thanks.

From the Editor

We hope that you have had a wonderful summer. We are looking forward to an exciting fall season. Our September concert, which will be a real treat, features Moira Craig, Carolyn Robson, and Sara Morgan. The Riverdale Sing, the Chantey Sing and the Sacred Harp Singing will also start up again. Get your voices in gear and join us. Take a look at our upcoming October workshops-Balkan Singing and Elements of Cajun Music-and sign up before they become filled.

Don't forget it's not too early to sign up for the Fall Weekend which will be held at Kutz Camp, which is a new place for us. Don't worry-there will still be a great program with Finest Kind, chances to sing and jam and have our usual great time.

A cost saving hint: because of rising costs, we have come to the unhappy conclusion that we have to raise our dues starting in October. Pay your dues now and save. See the information on page 3 for details.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the July-August newsletter thank you to: Irene Anderson, Al Cadwallader, Herb Feuerlicht, Rosalie Friend, Isabel Goldstein, Harvey Lichtman, Brenda Pena, Marcus Tieman, Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Tuesday, September 27th, and help mail out the October newsletter? (See p.2).

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Congratulations to JOY BENNETT and CHRIS KOLDEWEY. They were married in June. Best wishes for joy to Joy and Chris.

We have another graduate! In May, TED and ILENE GREENSTONE's son, BENJAMIN, was graduated, cum laude, from Shenandoah University in Winchester, VA with a BFA in musical theater. In addition, he received the second highest number of "callbacks" in his class from theater companies after entering a mass audition of drama students held in Memphis, TN. Currently, he has a paid internship with the Barter Theater of Abingdon, VA and appeared in a production of "Singin' In The Rain" in July. He will continue working with the repertory theater during the winter months in various capacities -- dancing, singing, acting, stage management and crew work. Ted and Ilene's daughter, ANNA, spent her junior semester abroad in Nairobi, Kenya. Currently, she is in Arusha, Tanzania where she is doing volunteer work teaching English, drama and other subjects. Anna studied Swahili in preparation for her trip, but isn't getting to use it as much as she would like to because the people she works with want to practice English. Best of luck to these two talented young people!

TOBY FAGENSON and JANE BABITS traveled to England this summer.

CLARISSE KJERULFF made job-related trips to San Diego during July and August. In February, she had a solo photography exhibit at the Manhattan Theater Source in Greenwich Village where she sold some photos. In the fall, one of Clarisse's photographs will appear at the Durst Gallery.

JERRY EPSTEIN is having a great time working on two grants from the National Science Foundation. For one of the grants, he is developing a calculus concept test. For the other, he is training teachers in laboratory mathematics.

Traditional English and Scottish Harmony at its best.

Friday, September 30, 8:00

Dibner Auditorium, Polytechnic University, Brooklyn

Free! to NYPFMC members, General Admission $18; $10 seniors and full-time students; $6 children under 12.

Moira Craig, Sarah Morgan and Carolyn Robson perform traditional English, Northumbrian, and Scottish songs with depth, with passion, and with power. They have created something of a storm in the UK:

Bob Berry - Chippenham Folk Festival:

With well researched material, stunning singing, and a blend of voices that bring about a whole new meaning to harmony, they certainly get my vote!

Carmen Hunt – Cornwall Folk Festival:

"The audience emerged, buzzing about the glorious singing and about the atmosphere that really drew people into the performance – fantastic work!

Paul Davenport - Editor, English Dance and Song:

"The collective sound is a rich cocktail which thrills the ear, yet holds the attention of the mind to each word of their songs. These are performers who know their material and have a tangible respect for the validity of everything that leaves their lips. There are those who question the place of traditional song in a post-industrial society, even more who reckon tradition itself worthless. An hour in the company of this trio will raise questions that the doubter would find hard to dismiss. ... Craig, Morgan & Robson are adepts at making this musical tradition accessible. They are not to be missed.
