TRADITIONAL SINGING WORKSHOP; Saturday - Sunday, Nov. 22-23 Advance Registration Required

Jerry Epstein will give an intensive workshop for singers at all levels, in every aspect of the singing of folk songs covering using the voice with freedom and power, holding pitch, and stylistic aspects that make a song memorable. Jerry has been leading these workshops for more than 30 years in the U.S., England, Scotland, and Australia.

Registrants should be able to carry a tune and should have a few songs to work on. The sessions are informal, individualized, and supportive. Each participant will work on a song in each of the four sessions. Other attendees give their immediate reactions, enabling the participant to remove obstacles to the most immediate and effective delivery, the most natural sound, and the best narrative.

The sessions will be morning and afternoon of each day. The location is the upper West side of Manhattan. Full weekend registration is $75 for FMSNY members, $85 non-members. (Registration for one day is possible only on a space-available basis.) For questions, call Jerry at 718-429-3437. Register in advance by sending your phone number, email address and a check made out to 'FMSNY' to Alan Friend, Education Chair, 440 Fifth STREET, (NOT AVENUE), Brooklyn, NY 11215. Other questions, Alan's phone is 718-965-4074.

CAROLINA JUG STOMPERS, House Concert, Sunday, Nov. 23rd, 7:30 pm

The Carolina Jug Stompers this all-star quartet, presents a feast of classic jug band songs on topics from gin to chickens, spiced with rare ragtime pieces and more modern jazz tunes retro-arranged into an earlier form. Fine singers all, they offer a rich blend of vocal harmonies backed by improvised acoustic instrumental work. And they love the music and making it together, making for an infectious energy and all around good time wherever they perform. Luke Faust, wizard of the mysterious art of jug blowing, has been a musician's musician around New York City for decades, playing with The Holy Modal Rounders, among other groups, and in the legendary 60s Greenwich Village folk scene. Ron Cole, called "the maven of Hokum", plays a slippery fiddle style steeped in his vast collection of rare 78 rpm records. Known for his mastery of all strings old-timey, Randy Johnson, defines versatility while setting the standard for the band on both vocals and instrumentals. WB Reid adds his unparalleled driving touch on the banjo-guitar, a largely forgotten instrument once played by Papa Charlie Jackson and Django Reinhardt. At the home of Susan Sterngold and Mike Resnick, Suffern, NY--reachable by NJ transit or Short Line bus. For info: email banjolady.susan@verizon.net or call 845-519-4890. FMSNY members $12, non-members $15, children and F/T students $6, Seniors $10.

And don't forget the Sea Music Concert with Donal Maguire, the Carolina Jug Stompers house concert, and the Gospel and Sacred Harp Sing, the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey Sing, and the Sacred Harp Singing. December 5th, you will have the opportunity to see Carrie and Michael Kline in a house concert. Mark your calendars for everything now!

Thank you to the folks who mailed out the newsletter. They could always use more help. The following volunteers worked at the last mailing: Maddy DeLeon, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Peña, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Sonja Savig, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on November 26? Eisteddfod 2008 has needs!

Our great festival of traditional music comes around for its fifth incarnation in the Big Apple this November 14-16. See the flyer in the centerfold. Our members have been helpful in many ways, and as always we appeal on several fronts.

Housing: We need members to volunteer beds to house performers. Housing in Queens would be especially desirable, but any members who can be helpful would be greatly appreciated. If you can house somebody, we provide you free admission to the festival. Beds are needed for Friday and Saturday night, and in some cases for Sunday night also. You do not need to provide meals. If you have a sofa bed or spare room and can help, please call Rosalie Friend 718- 965-4074 as soon as you can.

Volunteers: The festival requires a large crew of capable, friendly, organized people to make the many jobs at the festival actually happen. Volunteering for 6 hours over the course of the weekend also gets you free admission. Jobs come in 57 varieties. We have an ongoing crew, but there are some spaces we very much need to fill. If you would like to know more, please call Rosalie Friend, 718- 965-4074. Both of these contributions will get you an invite to the after festival party. Ain't that a deal?

Advertising and Vendors: We need advertisements in the program book, contact Heather Wood 212-957-8386. And vendors to sell crafts or food in the Folk Marketplace, call Rosalie Friend, 718- 965-4074.

And COME: If the people don't come, there won't be any festival and the performers will get lonely. So please put it on your calendar, November 14-16, and invite everyone you know. Seriously, our greatest outreach to new people is the people who already know what a great time it will be. So one of the best things you can do for the festival and the Club is to help bring in people who don't know it is happening but would love it if they did. You all know some of those, right? If you want us to send you some flyers to put up or give out, please call Don Wade, 718-426-8555.

See the flyer insert for more details and information about ordering festival tickets. (Day and/or concert tickets are also available.)
