Songs of Social Unrest Through the Ages, Sat., Dec. 15th; 8pm ☺

Come support our scholarship fund while enjoying a program of traditional songs of social unrest from the Middle Ages to the present time.

Joy Bennett has been involved in folk music for most of her life. As a member of the quartet Water Sign for 13 years, and the all-female a capella group the Johnson Girls for the past 15 years, she has explored the close-knit harmonies of both traditional and contemporary folk music. Joy has performed solo, with Water Sign, the Johnson Girls, with Chris Koldewey, and with guest artists in the US, UK, Canada, and across Europe.

Chris Koldewey has been singing and playing folk music, and sea music in particular, since he was a teenager. He comes from a family rich in maritime traditions, and his lullabies as a child were traditional songs of the sea. A public school music teacher by trade, Chris spends his vacation time as a shantyman at the Mystic Seaport Museum in Connecticut, one of the few places left where shanties are used for their original purpose – coordinating shipboard tasks.

Heather Wood has been a singer for over 40 years, dating back to her days with the Young Tradition and the English folk music revival. She has a great repertoire

THANK YOU! MAHALO!

I wanted to send a giant MAHALO to you all for bringing me to the Eisteddfod this year! What a blast! James and I had a great time attending all of the workshops and concerts. And eating all of the food!

And we LOVED meeting the people! Such great folks gathered in one place and for one reason--their shared love of traditional music. Magic!

It is always an honor to share the music and stories from Molokai and the other Hawaiian islands. (And the hula, too!) Thank you for giving me the opportunity. A delight to share Aloha beyond Hawai'i's shores. I hope it proves to have been fun/informative for the FMSNY members!

And because of the workshops and concerts, my eyes have been reopened (and my Happy Holidays everyone. Hope this December is a happy and healthy month. We have some fun events coming up. We are joining up with the People's Voice Café for a benefit concert for FMSNY—Songs of Social Unrest Through the Ages. We are also looking forward to the Pub Sing. The Irish Traditional Music Sessions continue on Mondays. Also continuing are the Instrumental Jam, the Shanty Sing, and the Folk Open Sing. Join the Jackson Heights Community for a special caroling day with songs of the season and other non-seasonal favorite songs—A Serenade of Gratitude.

In a separate mailing, you will receive the ballots to elect our new Board. Please send them in; every vote is important. We want to thank Arthur Sherry and Bob Rosensweet who have been on the Board but are not running this year. Thank you for all your hard work. And thank you to all of the Board members who work so hard to keep the club going to bring you great music! If you are interested in coming to a Board meeting, joining the Board, or have questions about the Board, call Evy at 718-549-1344 (after 11 am)

Don't forget our exciting newsletter mailings! Thank you to the volunteers last month: Lynn Cole, Jerry Epstein, Clarice Kjerulff, Eileen Pentel, Marilyn Suffet, and Don Wade; they helped when some of our usual helpers were unable to make it because of Sandy's disruptions. Without our hard workers the newsletter would not get sent out. Won't you join us at the next mailing on Wednesday, December 26th. (See page 3.)

We have an online scrapbook with articles, videos, and pictures; you can navigate there from a link on our main web page or use the direct link: <http://www.folkmusicny.org/Scrapbook/Scrapbook.html>.
