Old-Time Instrumental Jam: Alt. Tues, June 10 & 24; 7:30-9:30pm

Wanna JAM? Alan Friend will lead an old-time jam from 7:30 to 9:30pm at the Brooklyn Pharmacy & Soda Fountain every other Tuesday as indicated. Bring your fiddle, banjo, guitar, etc. and we'll play old-time music at this small, warm, friendly venue. Acoustic instruments only-- no electric ones. Buy some delicious desserts and socialize while you're here, as well. The Pharmacy is located at 513 Henry St. (at Sackett St.) in Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn. Info: alanfriend_music \(at\) mindspring.commindspring.com).

Because so many people go on vacation in July and August, and there are so many outstanding music festivals, the old-time jams at the Brooklyn Pharmacy will also go on vacation during those months. Jams will resume in the fall. Enjoy your summer.

For further information contact Bob Conroy: RConroy421(at)aol.com or 347-267-9394.

Anita Best: Tuesday, June 24th; 7-9pm:

Anita is well known in the Newfoundland traditional scene. Her involvement in research, teaching, broadcasting and her position as one of Newfoundland's most talented traditional singers puts her at the heart of this scene. She was born in a small fishing village with the fairytale name of Merasheen, in Placentia Bay, Newfoundland, just before circumstances contrived to bring her native country into union with Canada. Her people came to Merasheen from Somerset in the late 1700s and were engaged in the inshore and bank fishery until Merasheen was depopulated by government in 1968. On both sides of the family there were wonderful singers of old ballads, tragic sea songs and comical ditties, and the occasional storyteller who gathered everyone around on the long winter nights.

Co-sponsored with and at the John Street Church, 44 John St. (east of Broadway and one block south of and parallel to Fulton), near Fulton St. subway stop. Contribution: General public $12, members of the Folk Music Society and of the NY Folklore Society $10. Info: 212-957-8386. Anita's website. <http://anitabest.com/>

I just came back from our Spring Weekend and am filled with happy memories of the music, the participants and the staff. Fall may be far away, but our Fall Weekend will be just as exciting and fun as the Spring Weekend. Hope to see you there and at our events this June and during the summer.

The summer will have arrived by the time you get this newsletter. This issue has the festival listings which should help you plan your summer vacations! Along with the Irish Traditional Music Sessions and the Folk Open Sing, we are starting off June with our Ice Cream Social—yummy ice cream—regular and non-dairy—and wonderful music made by you! Please see page 2 for reservations.

You will also be able to join in the Old-time Music Jams, the Shanty Sing and a concert and workshop with Bob Walser.

Don't miss the next exciting mailing on Tuesday, July 1st! (see page 3)

Boating with the Baymen

On Saturday 17 May, Long Island Traditions (www.longislandtraditions.org/), spear-headed by folklorist Nancy Solomon, organized a three-hour boat trip on the Viking Superstar from Montauk. There were conversations, oral narratives, and stories from local tradition-bearers from both Montauk and New Bedford, about the lives of commercial fishermen. Participants included Laura Orleans of the Working Waterfront Festival in New Bedford (a great event), Bonnie Brady of the Long Island Commercial Fishing Association, fisherman Reidar and his wife Kirsten Bendiksen, scalloper Chris Wright of New Bedford, and Sarah Broadwell, Chip Duryea, and Dave Krusa from Montauk. Also joining us were Susan and Steve Sanfilippo, who write songs based on the oral histories of Long Island fishermen. A wonderful day out (the weather cooperating), culminating in watching Sarah, a skilled scalloper, shucking fresh scallops for us to sample. Delicious! We learned a lot about this often dangerous trade, and the frequently misguided attempts of politicians to regulate it. When asked "What can we do to help?" the answer, from Bonnie Brady, was "Buy American fish."

CD Review: Pat Lamanna, "Full Circle"

When Pat comes to the mic at People's Music Network gatherings or elsewhere, folks always pay extra attention. They've learned to expect something special -- thoughtful, touching, often FUNNY -- never disappointing. Yes, she writes great lyric-driven songs and performs them beautifully. You'll probably want to play this album many times. Some quotes -- Pete Seeger, "You should write more songs!" and Sonny Ochs, "Really listenable songs that actually say something worth hearing." And many more.

This one hour gem of a CD has 16 fine very singable numbers, expertly performed by Pat and a dozen other talented musicians. "We Will Survive," irresistibly optimistic despite it all. The fun, funky "U. U. Blues." "Sing to the Mountains" and "Peace Pilgrim," wise and inspirational. A delightful prison-improvement song, "Paint it Pink." The cheerful, "Down Through the Years." "Gather in the Warmth," the comfort of community. "Good Ship Beagle," a toe-tapping, amiable celebration of evolution and science. "Stories," a poignant examination of the myths and legends that govern our warring planet. "Full Circle," a satisfying number, wherever YOU are in your personal circle of life. And lots more.

It's a real pleasure to hear her in person, and a treat to have this CD to tide you over in between. Do acquire it, it is available via cdbaby* -- the CD or download, or in-

Folk Music Society of NY Information

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc./NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club was started in 1965 and is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, educational corporation; and an affiliate of the Country Dance & Song Society of America. A copy of our annual report is available from our office at 444 W. 54th St, #7, NYC, NY 10019 or from the Office of Charities Registration, N.Y. Dept. of State, 162 Washington Av, Albany, NY 12232.

We have approximately 400 members and run concerts, week-ends, classes, and get-togethers, all with an emphasis on traditional music. The Society is run entirely by volunteers with a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The working officers below (members of and elected by the board) welcome your help and suggestions.

Memberships are listed on the back page; regular memberships help support the society and include one subscription to the newsletter (10-11 issues yearly) and reduced admissions. Won't you join us?
