

Scholarship Opportunities for TradMaD Camp, Aug 24-30, 2024 at Pinewoods Camp, Plymouth MA

This year, we are using a sliding scale model to make camp accessible to more people. The sliding scale fee you choose will not affect your chance of getting into camp: Low income member $700 to $815; Low income non-member $750 to $865 for those who can't afford full price. If these scaled-down options still leave camp out of reach for you, we want to help you get to camp with additional supporting funds. Thanks to the generosity of the community, there are several types of scholarships available this year. The first three listed are funded by Pinewoods Camp and TradMaD. The rest are funded by individual donors, the Folk Music Society of New York, and the Folk Song Society of Greater Boston. Preference is given to applicants with a demonstrated interest in traditional folk music.

1. Two NGI (New Generation Initiative) Scholarships-are for campers between the ages of 15 and 30, who are new to Pinewoods Camp and interested in leadership roles in traditional music, dance, and song.
2. One Need-based Scholarship- no age restriction, may be combined with a work scholarship.
3. Two BIPOC Scholarships for any age camper who identifies as Black, Indigenous, or a person of color, and may be experienced or new to our traditions. Any person in this category who needs financial assistance may apply. Applying in pairs is permitted. Preference may be given to those new to camp.
4. Multiple Need-based Scholarships funded by TradMaD, Assoc. Orgs., and private donors. Based on financial need. The number of scholarships depends on available funds during the application year.
5. Work Scholarships: six available (dishwasher), $200 off camp fee, approx. 90 minutes per day.

The full fee for the camp is $930 for members of associated organizations or $980 for non-members.
